

GRANT HANDLING

Field Service Engineer – Yate, Bristol

Bristol Depot

- Applicants are required for the position of Field Service Engineer working from our Yate based facility.
- Applicants should have a proven track record and recent experience in various aspects of forklift repair and maintenance.
- Our customer base consists of many large well know companies operating all types of materials handling equipment therefore the applicants will be required to be conversant with Diesel, Gas and Electrically powered equipment.
- The Successful applicant will have excellent communication skills, a clean and tidy appearance and a pleasant and helpful manner.
- A company vehicle will be provided together with company workwear, PPE and a tools Kit, but personal tools will be required.
- We offer excellent rates of pay, ample overtime and other benefits associated with working with a constantly expanding national company.

Contact in the first instance Lee Williams: leewilliams@granthandling.com

No Agencies